IDPH REVIEW

Presented by Connie Jensen, IDPH

The introduction of the new-computer based survey process, implementation of the Phase 2 ROP, and changes to the State Operations Manual have brought greater demands to the survey process. This session will review these changes and what surveyors are seeing during surveys.

Connie Jensen is the IDPH Division Chief Long Term Care and Acting Section Chief Education and Training

10:45 am – 12:15 pm

OSHA – WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Presented by Brian Bothast, OSHA

Often bills are introduced in the house and senate based on OSHA Guidelines. Safe lifting is one of these. In 2015 bills were introduced in the House and Senate. How are nursing homes implementing these guidelines and other OSHA requirements? This session will update members on OSHA and any current OSHA initiatives. As well as, what information gets a nursing home on an OSHA watch list?

Brian Bothast is a Lead Safety and Occupational Health Specialist for OSHA.

12:15 pm -1:15 pm LUNCH Sponsored by: OVITSKY VISION CARE

1:15 pm – 2:45 pm

MANAGED CARE IN ILLINOIS

Presented by Ashley Snavely, IHCA

Managed Care continues to change in Illinois. Providers have to navigate rules and regulations, and contract with Medicaid Managed Care Organizations. This session will review the ever changing political climate involved in Managed Care.

Ashley Snavely is the Legislative Director for IHCA with expertise in regulatory, legislature, and reimbursement.

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

HFS REVIEW

Presented by Mark McCurdy, HFS

Funding and Reimbursement continue to be front and center for providers. What is happening with Medicaid and Managed Care? How will Quality and the Patient Driven Payment Model (PDPM) continue to play a role in reimbursement? This session will review the current policies and procedures from Healthcare and Family Services.

Mark McCurdy is the Acting Chief of the Bureau of Long Term Care at HFS. Prior to Long Term Care, I managed the area responsible for Federal Expenditure reporting, drafted administrative rules and State Plan language, and worked on hospital reimbursement issues

HIPAA UPDATE AND SOCIAL MEDIA - A LEGAL PERSPECTIVE

Presented by Neville Bilimoria and Amy McCracken

With today's use of social media, providers need to ensure that staff is not violating HIPAA guidelines. Are you training staff in social media rules in order to avoid legal problems? This session will review HIPAA guidelines and give the legal perspective on problems and violations that can result from lack of staff training.

Neville M. Bilimoria is a partner with Duane Morris LLP's Health Law Practice Group in Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Bilimoria advises health care clients on corporate and litigation matters and counsels hospitals, health systems, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, physicians, on a variety of issues, including HIPAA and state health privacy law issues, regulatory compliance, and resulting litigation.

Amy E. McCracken is a skilled trial attorney with Duane Morris with a particular emphasis in healthcare. She represents long term care facilities, rehabilitation therapy companies and pharmacies throughout Illinois, and has successfully defended long term care facilities in civil and administrative cases.

10:30 am – 12 pm

FROM REGULATE TO MOTIVATE

Presented by Scott Wilson

Providers are dealing daily with rules, regulations, and reimbursement changes. Keeping morale high is a challenging part of long term care administration today. Dealing with a negative media image and disgruntled family and residents wears staff and administration down. This session will give providers a pat on the back and welcome relief from the everyday problems. Scott Wilson is the Executive Vice President of Business Development at ONR. For more than 20 years, Scott has worked in the Post-Acute sector of Healthcare. Most recently, Scott has been working in Business Development which allows him to utilize his clinical skills along with his operational knowledge to help cultivate business growth.
